While there are limited tickets available to Taps & Tastes and other packages featured on boulevardia.com which are expected to sell out shortly after they are put on sale, there will be an abundant number of general admission tickets accessible to Boulevardia for the entire weekend. Besides many tasty Boulevard beers available throughout the main festival grounds, additional craft beers will be available at a few bars to all general admission guests. These beers will be announced later this spring and outlined on the Boulevardia website and mobile app. Boulevardia general admission tickets include entry into the festival grounds, national, regional and local music acts on three stages, and access to tasty food trucks, local artisans, a carnival and more to be announced soon.

About Boulevardia

The two-day urban street festival is scheduled to take place June 16-17 in Kansas City's Stockyards District which is the area surrounding the Livestock Exchange Building. The multi-day event will be highlighted with a craft beer and food sampling experience, music from local, regional and national acts as well as family activities, entertainment, shopping and eco-education in a unique urban setting.
