Boulevardia beverages and bites served up for festival weekend

Assortment of libations and eats throughout Boulevardia's borders make all taste buds happy

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (May 24, 2017) –Boulevardians should come thirsty and hungry to this year's two-day urban street fair to enjoy the wide variety of flavors offered throughout the festival's grounds. A combination of past favorites and new eateries will be easily accessible, and numerous bars will pour a variety of beers, soda and water. The very popular beer cocktail bar will be back and thanks to Boulevardia's new location in the Stockyards District, patrons can also enjoy wine by tenant winemaker, Amigoni Winery.

A collection of Boulevard beers will be served on draught and in cans throughout Boulevardia's borders. Popular offerings include Unfiltered Wheat Beer, Pale Ale, American Kolsch, Tank 7 Farmhouse Ale, The Calling IPA and Boulevardia Sparkling Ale, a refreshing blonde ale created just for the festival by Boulevard Brewing Company and Piney River Brewing. In addition to Boulevard beers, two can-exclusive bars will pop tops off gluten-free Angry Orchard Crisp Apple Cider. The Cellar, a new artisanal beer experience, will be adjacent to the Chipotle Homegrown Stage featuring a variety of Boulevard's Smokestack Series beers such as Bourbon Barrel Quad, Saison Brett and Love Child No. 8 as well as Belgian beers Duvel Single and Liefmans Fruitesse. Finally, once again patrons will be allowed to bring in their own empty water containers to fill at a complimentary water station.

Savory eats from these food establishments will be sold from open to close both festival days:
